Report on Swachhata hi Seva

05.10.2023

Eco Club Committee along with NSS unit organized Swachhata hi Seva on 05.10.2023 at Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education, Hazaribag. In this, the students of Hareetimaa, Eco Club Committee actively participated and cleaned the entire college premises, Principal Dr. Sarika Kumari, addressed the students and emphasized that maintaining cleanliness in our surroundings is essential. Many faculty members and administrative staff were present to support the campaign, making it successful event.

Objective of the program Swachhata hi seva.

- Encourage community participation.
- Create Awareness.
- Promote Behavioral change
- Enhance Environmental sustainability.

Conclusion:

Swachhata Hi Seva has evolved into an important movement in India, creating awareness and encouraging mass participation in cleanliness and sanitation efforts. The initiative plays a vital role in supporting the larger Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and ensuring a cleaner, healthier India. Despite the challenges, SHS has brought about substantial progress in terms of public awareness, behavioral change, and community involvement. Moving forward, it is essential to focus on sustainability, building long-term infrastructure, and continuously motivating people to maintain cleanliness and hygiene beyond the campaign period.
