Report on Mehendi and Rakhi Competition Organized on the Auspicious Occasion of Sawan

Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education organized a Mehendi and Rakhi Competition under the “Art and Culture” programme on the auspicious occasion of the Sawan month. All trainee teachers of the college participated in the competition with great enthusiasm and creativity.

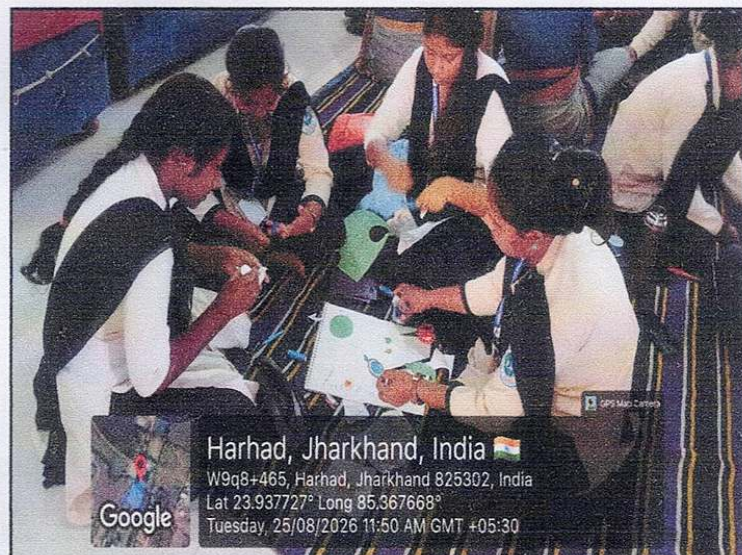

In the Mehendi Competition, Sujata Kumari secured the first position, Jyoti Kumari secured the second position, and Ragini Rajshree secured the third position. The consolation prize was awarded to Nargis Jahan. In the Rakhi Competition, Habiba Batul secured the first position, Wajda Ilima Syed secured the second position, and Muskan secured the third position. The consolation prize was awarded to Jyoti Kumari.

On this occasion, the Principal of the college, Dr. Sarika Kumari, said that art and culture play an important role in the overall personality development of students. Such creative competitions help develop artistic skills, creativity, self-confidence, and cultural values among trainee teachers. Traditional festivals like Sawan also provide an opportunity to connect with India’s rich cultural heritage and traditions.

All the Assistant Professors, non-teaching staff, and trainee teachers were present during the programme. The college campus was filled with enthusiasm, joy, and excitement throughout the competition.

Conclusion:

The Mehendi and Rakhi Competition provided a wonderful platform for trainee teachers to showcase their creativity and talent while strengthening their connection with Indian culture and traditions. The programme was successfully conducted in a joyful and enthusiastic atmosphere.
