NSS UNIT-I ORGANIZES NATIONAL UNITY DAY CELEBRATION

Introduction

Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education celebrated National Unity Day on 31st October 2026 under the aegis of NSS Unit-I to commemorate the 151th birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, popularly known as the Iron Man of India. The programme was organized with the objective of promoting national unity, integrity, social responsibility, cleanliness, and community participation among B.Ed. trainees.

Objectives of the Programme

1. To create awareness about the life and contributions of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.
2. To promote the values of national unity, integrity, and patriotism.
3. To develop a sense of social responsibility and community participation among teacher trainees.
4. To encourage cleanliness and hygiene through voluntary participation and Shramdaan.
5. To inculcate the values of teamwork, cooperation, discipline, and civic responsibility.

Programme Proceedings

The programme commenced with the garlanding of the portrait of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, offering floral tributes, and lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the respected Principal, Dr. Sarika Kumari, along with all the Assistant Professors.

Addressing the gathering, the Principal highlighted the remarkable contribution of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in the integration of princely states and the strengthening of India's unity and integrity. She emphasized that his life represents determination, leadership, patriotism, and dedicated service to the nation. She motivated B.Ed trainees to adopt the values of mutual harmony, discipline, cooperation, and national responsibility in their personal and professional lives.

Following the formal programme, all B.Ed. trainees session (2026–28) actively participated in a cleanliness drive on the college campus. Through collective Shramdaan, they cleaned the campus and demonstrated their commitment towards maintaining a clean and healthy institutional environment.

Participation

The programme witnessed the active participation of the Principal, all Assistant Professors, non-teaching staff, and B.Ed. teacher trainees of the 2026–28 session. The collective involvement reflected the institution's commitment to experiential learning, community engagement, and value-based education.

Outcomes of the Programme

- Enhanced awareness among trainees about the importance of national unity and the contribution of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.
- Developed a sense of social responsibility and active citizenship.
- Encouraged collective participation, teamwork, and the spirit of volunteerism.
- Promoted awareness regarding cleanliness, hygiene, and environmental responsibility.
- Strengthened values of discipline, cooperation, mutual respect, and national integration.
- Provided practical exposure to community-oriented activities through voluntary Shramdaan.

Conclusion

The celebration of National Unity Day and the Shramdaan activity proved to be a meaningful initiative towards promoting national integration, civic responsibility, and community engagement. The active participation of teacher trainees reflected their commitment to social service and institutional cleanliness. The programme successfully reinforced the message that national unity, social harmony, and cleanliness are collective responsibilities. Such activities play an important role in preparing future teachers as responsible, disciplined, socially sensitive, and value-oriented citizens.

Institutional Impact: The programme strengthened the culture of community participation, experiential learning, and value-based education in the institution, reflecting its commitment towards holistic development of future teachers.
