Report on
Rangoli Competition Celebrates Creativity and Cultural Heritage

A Rangoli Competition was organized at Swami Dharmbandhu College of Education on the auspicious occasion of Diwali with great enthusiasm and festive spirit. The event witnessed active participation from the teacher trainees of the B.Ed. Session 2026–28, who showcased their creativity, artistic skills, imagination, and cultural appreciation through beautiful and colourful Rangoli designs.

Objectives

The main objectives of the competition were:

- To encourage creativity, imagination, and artistic expression among teacher trainees.
- To promote awareness and appreciation of Indian culture, traditions, and heritage.
- To develop teamwork, cooperation, and a spirit of healthy competition.
- To enhance self-confidence and aesthetic sense among the participants.

Inauguration and Address

The competition was inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Sarika Kumari. In her address, she highlighted that Rangoli is an integral part of Indian culture and tradition. She stated that Rangoli is not merely an arrangement of colours but also represents creativity, unity, positivity, and cultural values. She further emphasized that such activities help develop artistic skills, self-confidence, and a sense of collective participation among teacher trainees.

Results of the Competition

The participants displayed remarkable artistic talent and presented beautiful Rangoli designs. The winners were as follows:

- First Position (Group G): Aastha Kumari, Pooja Kumari, Manu Kumari, Ajit Kumar, and Ramakant Kumar.
- Second Position (Group K): Anupriya Kumari, Tanushree Priya, Isha Sharma, Pragati Kumari, and Rohit Rana.
- Third Position (Group F): Premlata Kumari, Neelam Kumari, Jyoti Kumari, Vikash Kumar-1, and Vikash Kumar-2.

Outcomes

1. Teacher trainees demonstrated their artistic abilities and creative potential.
2. The activity promoted teamwork, coordination, and mutual cooperation.
3. Participants developed a greater appreciation of Indian cultural traditions.
4. The competition enhanced confidence, aesthetic awareness, and a spirit of healthy competition.
5. It provided an opportunity for experiential and joyful learning beyond the classroom.

Conclusion

The Rangoli Competition was a joyful and enriching experience for all the participants. It successfully provided a platform for teacher trainees to express their creativity while connecting with India's rich cultural heritage. The event added colour, beauty, and festive charm to the college campus and reinforced the importance of co-curricular activities in the holistic development of future teachers.

All the Assistant Professors, non-teaching staff, and teacher trainees of B.Ed. Session 2026–28 were present on the occasion. The programme concluded on a joyful and celebratory note.
